

Logging into Your EnergyFolks Account

Instructions:

1. Go to our website: energyclub.stanford.edu
2. Hover over the “Get an Account or Login” button

3. If you use LinkedIn, click Login with LinkedIn.
4. Otherwise, type in your email and password.
5. You can also login here: <http://energyclub.stanford.edu/?p=8843>

Troubleshooting:

1. You will need to temporarily disable your popup blocker.
2. If you're using a shared computer or you have another Energyfolks account, you may need to clear your cookies. Alternatively, you can open an “in private” or incognito” browsing session.
3. Energyfolks login is currently not supported on some mobile browsers.
4. Public accounts do not have blog access. If you are trying to post a discussion item, go to <https://energyclub.stanford.edu/bulletins/> instead.
